The First of a Series of Historical Events.

N.S.-This description was written a shor BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.

It is an impressive eight, when the care of a child is fixed upon the features of someone dying. Mind is fornibly influenced by wall defined contrast, and a little girl of five summers peering into the furrows traced by life's seen lest week at Ciscion. There are three little shildren, oumed

Chris, Dot and Jhal.

The two former are girls, the latter is a boy. They eing soles, speak occasionally is the meetings, and are taught to pray at home. They have trevelled exiscalvely, and small as is the unmber of their years,—a total of sixteen en them withou have already won bettles for each destines have been ordained by the kind care of the Saivation Army. There are also three other little girls, called Catherine, Mary and Mirlam.

They emprise all but one of the Chief's family. I commend that standard to the prayers. to the faith, and to the industry of every Salvationist throughout the Dominion. This I think ie the least we ought to escomplish, and this is whet I believe, notwithstending every chatacle and every foo, God will enable se to do.

What is to be Done with the Money? In the first place I am pleased to be ahls to announce that in view of the prochiar difficulties and the temporary financial depression under which the Army in the Dominion is softering, the General has once more sonsented that the entire pro-ceeds of the Self-Decial Fund shall be devoted to the perpose of assisting the work in the Dominion.

Now, while with me overy loyal, unsel-fish Salvationist will feel it to be a mic field Salvationist will teel it to he a mile fortune that circumstances should compel na to fall cot of line, even for a seasoo, with overy other nation where the Army'e flag is flying, and to be denied in couse-quoces the hoser of lending a halping hand to those parts of the hattlofield where there is the greatest stress, and from which the heather cry to ue in unnumbered milthe hestice or to be in ununusered mis-lions; yet we cannot but appreciate the spicualit opportunity new given to ne of lifting from oor Army in the Dominion the burdon of debt and financial depression which so seriously embarrasses ag.

Army. We cannot do without unity, was provides without love. While that spirit of disloyalty and deception larks within our ranks our faith arriphed and within our ranks our faith arriphed and was become cowards and hypocritee before we know where we are. Let us then go for unity and love. Let us be done for ever with that cant which robe a man of his character behind his back and then meets him with a smile on the street. Let ns recollect that there is no soch thing as being true to God and false to your brother.

Let us learn how to stand up for right when we see it, regardless of personal in-terests, for it will be always found that at the end of the right way there is God, and at the end of the false one, however profitable in the interval, there is the devil.

CHE-I sland all bewildered with wonder ("S. A. M.," Vol. L. Hos, 103 and 120; "B.J.," No. 80.)

I stand all bewildered with wonder, And gase on the coean of love, And over in waves to my spirit, Comes peace, like a heavenly dove,

CHORDS The Cross now covers my sina,
The past is under the Blood;
I'm trusting in Justs for all,
My will is the will of my God,

I struggled and wrestled to win it,
The blee-ing that setteth me free,
Het when I had cessed from my struggle.
His peace Jesus gave anto me.

He laid His hand on me and bealad me, And bade me to every whit whole; I touched the hem of His garment And glosy came thrilling to my soul.

The Prince of my peace is now passing.
The light of His face is on me;
But listen, beloved, He speaketh—
"My peace I will give unto Thee."

Nothing ions than perfect love.

Wake up, brother! wake up, sister! Seek, oh, seek this holy state; None but hely ones can enter Through the pure, celestial gate.

Oh, may every soul be filled With the Holy Ghoet to day— It is coming, it is coming, Oh, prepare, propers are way !

FIRE.

"B.B." No. 9. "B.J." No. 143.)

Comis, Jesus, L. ad, with Holy Fire, Come, and my quickzeel heart last Cleaned in Thy precious blood,

Let nothing now my beart divide, Sione with Thee I am crucified, And live to God in Thee. Dead to the world and all its toys, Its idle poup and feding Joys, Jesus, my giory be.

Jessa, my gory ha.

Me with a quanchiase thirst impire,
A longing, infinite desire,
Loss than Thyself, oh, do not give;
In might Thyself within me live;
Come, all Thou her and art.

My will be swallowed up in Thee, Light in Thy light still may I see, in Thines unclouded face. Called the full strength of creek to pove, the tall my quickened heart be love, My speciass like by praise.

SIRRER LOOK I

Tonn-Whafe the next ("S. A. M." Vol. L. Nos. 107 and 380; "B. J.," No. 82)

Nos. III and 380; "Is. J.," No Behold, behold the Lamb of God. On the Cross; For us He shed His precious blood. On the Cross. Oh, yeu who still His love dety, And all His grace and power deny, Draw near and see your Saviour dis On the Cross.

Hehold His arms extended wide,
On the Gross;
Behold His bleeding hands and side,
The sun withholds his rays of light,
The sun withholds his rays of light,
The heavens are clothed in shades of night,
While Jesus does with devils fight,
On the Gross.

Come, sinners, see Him lifted up,
On the Cross,
He drinks for you the litter cup,
The rocks do red the Cross.
The rocks do red the Cross.
Witle Jesus does stonement make,
While Jesus es fiers for our sake,
On the Cross.

And now the mighty deed is done
On the Cores.
The bestide is fought, the victory a won,
On the Cores.
To heaven He turns His insignid eyes—
"Ye finished!" now the Conqueror or
Them bows His secret head and dies
On the Fross,

Where'er I go I'll tell the story
Of the Cross;
In nothing size my soul shall glery,
Eare the Cross.
Yes, this my constant theme shall be,
Through the and a stermity,
That Jesus tasted death for me,
On the Cross.

MORE SALVATION. NE-(" M.S.," Vol. L. No. 90 : " B.J." No. 04.)

Before I got salvation
I was can't in degradation,
And from an Seviour wandered for astrey;
Hut I came to Calvery's mountain,
Where I fell into the fountain,
And from my hear the burden rolled away.

Two a hoppy day, and no mistake, When Jesus from my heart did take The load of sin that made it sohe, And filled my coal with joy.

Since I have been converted, And the devil's rawks descrited, I've had such joy and gladness in my soul? For Jesus I've been fighting, And in the War delighting, And now I'm pressing on lowards the goal. If faithful to my Saviour,
I shall enjoy His favor,
And He will keep me sately to the end,
And when I cross the River
T'll live with Him for ever,
And one eternal day of giory opens.
